Lesson for November 1

THE FIGHT AGAINST STRONG DRINK

(Temperance Lesson)
LESSON TEXT—Eph. 6:10-18.
GOLDEN TEXT—"Be strong in the Lord, and in the power of his might."—Eph. 6:10.
PRIMARY TOPIC—Loving and Obeying Jesus.
JUNIOR TOPIC—How to Be Strong.
INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—Strong Armor for a Hard Fight.
YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—The Fight Against Strong Drink.

This is not a temperance lesson in the usual sense that it deals with intoxicants, but in the sense that it has to do with the believer's walk in conflict with the devil, perhaps there has been no time when the evil one has made such a terrific fight as he is now doing in his attempt to nullify the Eighteenth amendment. The Christian has been saved by grace. Though his redemption is free, between its beginning and consummation there is a real, severe and protracted conflict. This conflict is most difficult and dangerous because it is not with flesh and blood, but with principalities, powers and spiritual hosts of wickedness in high places. Though the conflict is severe and painful, we should bravely battle on because the issue is sure if we go forth in the strength of God.

I. The Source of the Believer's Strength (v. 10).

It is in the Lord. Only as the branch is united to the vine, or as a limb is united to the body, is there strength of life. We dare not attempt this conflict in human strength and wisdom.

II. The Enemy (vv. 11-12).

The enemy is the devil, a personal malicious being, with his many subordinates. His personality is proven by the names given him, and actions predicated of him. He has an exalted position, and is mighty in power, and all unsaved men are under his power. He is the original sinner, and is extremely cunning. He has power over death; enters into men; blinds their eyes; lays snares for them, and stirs God's servants. He carries on his work, he has his churches and ministers. However, he is resting under a curse. The death blow was given on the cross, and he will receive his doom in the lake of fire.

III. The Christian's Armor (vv. 13-17).

This means that his weapons of offensive and defensive warfare are not of man's devices. Just as his strength is from the Lord, so is his armor. The believer does not act merely on the defensive. He must attack his spiritual enemies as well as resist their spiritual attack.

1. A Girdle of Truth (v. 14).

The truth of God, sincerely and honestly embraced, alone will avail in this conflict. Reason, tradition, speculation and dead orthodoxy will fail in the crucial hour.

2. The Breastplate of Christ's Righteousness (v. 14).

As the metal plate covered the vital organs of the warrior, so the righteousness of Christ protects us from the enemy's assault.

3. Feet Shod With the Preparation of the Gospel of Peace (v. 15).

This suggests the firm foothold of the soldier and his alacrity—readiness to proclaim the message of peace.

4. Shield of Faith (v. 16).

By this he is able to quench all the fiery darts of the wicked. Christ is the object of that faith.

5. The Helmet of Salvation (v. 17).

Consciousness of salvation enables a man, knowing that he is a child of God, and fellow-citizen with the saints, to lift up his head with confidence and to vigorously assault the enemy.

6. The Sword of the Spirit (v. 17).

This is the Word of God, the Christian's offensive weapon; with it he can most effectively put his enemy to flight. The Christ used in the temptations is the wilderness, Matt. 4:4, 7, 10, 11. The church of Christ has won all her triumphs by the Word of God. Where she goes on using this, she goes on conquering, but when she falls back upon reason, culture, traditions, science or the commandments of men, she goes down in defeat before the adversary.

IV. The Way to Get Strength to Use the Armor, and Courage to Face the Foe (vv. 18-20).

This is by prayer—and prayer alone.

1. Every Variety and Method of Prayer Should Be Employed (v. 18).

2. He Prays for His Comrades, "All the Saints" (v. 18).

He sees all the believers standing shoulder to shoulder against the enemy.

3. He Is Persistent (v. 18)

Some Things to Be Aware Of

Beware of idle moments! Beware of the beginnings of evil! Above all, be more than all, beware lest you once admit the fatal intrusion of evil thoughts. In solemn and awful earnest I would say to you, "Watch and pray lest ye enter into temptation."—Farrar.

Eloquence

Eloquence is the appropriate organ of the highest personal energy.—Emerson.

VERA

The social season opens Tuesday with a corn-shucking at W. W. O'Brien's.

Messrs. W. T. Childers and Leighton Hatcher are hauling lime from Appomattox this week. These gentlemen are two of our most progressive farmers, and believe in "feeding" the soil.

Mrs. Jos. Garrett and Mrs. Lawrence Hatcher went to Lynchburg, Monday, to spend a week with friends, there.

Mrs. Edgar LePew, of Lynchburg, visited her mother, Mrs. Bryant Ferguson, who has been sick, and her sister, Mrs. W. T. Childers, from Friday until Monday.

Mrs. Ernest Harris and children, of Clifton Forge, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Beale, last week.

Mr. and Mrs. John Everett Childers have been missing their chickens, this fall, but couldn't somehow locate the offender. The other night they heard the cry of a chicken and hastened to the hennery with a shotgun and shot the culprit which proved to be a big, fat o'possum.

We are glad to note Miss Neal Stone is very ill, is "holding her own."

Miss Isabelle O'Brien met with a peculiar and painful accident, last week. Miss O'Brien is a teacher at Back Hollow and at recess was playing with her pupils, when she accidentally dislocated her shoulder. A doctor's services were required to set it. She is getting along all right at this writing.

"Thinks world may breathe easy now; peace at last. British Foreign Secretary thinks New Era dawned at Lacarno conference. War's ended at last! etc., etc." These were the bold headlines in the Lynchburg News on October 20th. This is what man says; what does Jesus say? In 1 Thess., 5th chapter, in speaking of the Day of the Lord, in the 3rd verse, He says: "For when they shall say Peace and Safety; then sudden destruction cometh upon them as travail upon a woman with child and they shall not escape." This is what the Lord calls "meat in due season." "He that hath an ear to hear, let him hear."

ROCKS NEWS

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Roach are at their parents now for about two weeks.

Miss Ethel Anderson has returned home after a visit of quite a while to her cousin, Mrs. Bob Haga, and her uncle, Mr. Fielding Anderson in Salem.

Miss Virginia Almond is at home after a visit to her brothers and sisters in Lynchburg.

Mr. Robert Almond of Lynchburg had his tonsils removed some time ago and is now at his father's, Mr. W. J. Almond, to stay awhile before beginning his work again. We trust he will soon be o. k. again.

Miss Theressa Marsh and Mr. Dean Pugh, both of near Evergreen, were quietly married last Tuesday. Immediately after the ceremony the happy couple left for Washington, D. C., for a few days. They will make their home near Evergreen. We hope them much happiness.

We are sorry to learn of the death of Mr. W. Dickerson, who has been making his home with his sister, Mrs. Albert Baldwin, since the death of her husband about a year ago. Mr. Dickerson came here from North Carolina. His son, Floyd, of Salisbury, N. C., was here during his illness and stayed until after the funeral. His daughter, Mrs. Powel, came from her home in Wyleburg, Va. Mr. Dickerson was 78 years old. Our sympathy goes to the bereaved family.

Miss Olivia Rush was the week-end guest of relatives in Lynchburg.

EVERGREEN

The "Willing Workers" Sunday-school class of the M. E. Church here, held its meeting last Friday night at the home of Mrs. J. R. Ransom. A large attendance and fine time was reported.

Mr. Penick Harvey has accepted a position in West Virginia. We hope him much success.

Mrs. W. T. Johnson is on the sick list.

Hark! The wedding bells will soon be ringing in Evergreen. Wonder who 'tis?

Miss Elsie Marks spent the week-end with her parents near Oakville.

REMEMBRANCE

In loving remembrance of our dear mother and wife, Mrs. W. H. Ferguson, who fell asleep in Jesus twelve months ago today, October 27, 1924, 4 a. m.

Through faith in Christ we'll meet again,

Santa Catalina

The Island of Santa Catalina, lying off the coast of southern California, is 50 miles south of Los Angeles. It was discovered in 1542 by Juan Rodrigues Cabrillo, a Portuguese explorer, in the service of Spain and named San Salvador. It was visited by Sebastian Vizcaino 60 years later and named Santa Catalina, in honor of St. Catherine of Sienna. Its area is about 55,000 acres. The surface is hilly and well wooded. The island contains many deep gorges.

Thing That Counts

Life's race is strenuous, whether for money, fame, honor or pleasure. Yet these are not the goals which in the end most compensate. Many a man who has won these, "also ran" in the eyes of the world. The test goal is self-command.—Grit.

Origin of "A No. 1"

So far as known, this originated in the classification of wooden ships by Lloyd's, the English insurance association. According to their classification, A 1 or A No. 1 indicated that the equipment and ship were in first-class condition.

Men and Money Make this Bank Secure.

THERE are two ways of measuring the strength and standing of a bank. In the first place money resources—capital and surplus—give it financial strength.

In the second place—and perhaps even more important—are men, the officers and directors. They give the bank character, determine and execute its policies.

This is a strong bank, a helpful bank because it has ample resources, and a personnel of proven character and ability.
